

Spanish 102 Placement Review Sheet: Preterite vs Imperfect, Subjunctive Triggers, and Object Pronouns

University of California Los Angeles
SPAN 102 - Elementary Spanish II | Study Guide

Overview

A Spanish 102 placement and summer review sheet for students refreshing preterite versus imperfect, common subjunctive triggers, direct and indirect object pronouns, and sentence repair before a placement quiz.

What this document covers

- preterite and imperfect signal words
- subjunctive triggers with wishes doubt and emotion
- direct and indirect object pronoun placement
- reflexive verbs and agreement reminders
- sentence-editing patterns for placement exams

How to use it

- choose preterite or imperfect in context
- underline the trigger that calls for subjunctive
- rewrite sentences with object pronouns
- repair five common grammar errors
- make a verb-form grid for fast review

Common mistakes to avoid

- choosing tense from a single word only
- using subjunctive after every que
- placing object pronouns randomly
- forgetting accent marks on command forms
- translating word-for-word from English